This walking day is the longest of the route but is also completely flat, making it comfortable. We will traverse the entire Ría de Camariñas, with gentler landscapes and beautiful villages providing a new perspective on the route. In the second part of the day, peaceful sandy beaches at the mouth of the River Grande and the incomparable Praia do Lago lead us to Muxía, where we will reach the Santuario da Barca after ascending Monte Corpiño. We finish for the day at Praia do Coido.
