For those who are short on time, but still want to experience the beauty of completing the Camino, you can walk from Sarria to Santiago de Compostela through the beautiful hilly landscapes of Galicia in just 5 days. You will still receive your certificate of completion, or Compostela, upon arrival at Santiago Cathedral. From here, many of pilgrims decide to extend their journey to the 'Costa da Morte'. This tour includes a bus to Finisterre, once considered the end of the world in Roman times, after arrival in Santiago. You will find hilly villages along the way till you reach the cliffs of Spain's western-most point. Beautiful scenery and amazing legends and history will compliment your journey.

AMENAL -> SANTIAGO DE COMPOSTELA

The Camino de Santiago from Amenal to Santiago de Compostela is the final leg of the journey for many pilgrims on the Camino Francés, which is the most popular route to Santiago. This stretch is approximately 16 kilometers (about 10 miles) long and offers a mix of urban and rural landscapes. As you progress, you'll notice a gradual transition from rural to suburban surroundings. The path takes you through small villages, open fields, and wooded areas, with increasing signs of urbanization. A significant landmark along the way is "Monte do Gozo" or "Mount of Joy." This hill offers a panoramic view of Santiago de Compostela, and it's a place where many pilgrims pause to savor their first glimpse of the city and the cathedral spires in the distance. After descending from Monte do Gozo, you'll continue through urban areas, eventually leading you into the heart of Santiago's historic district.
