Here, you can enjoy world-renowned cuisine as well as the more informal dining experience of pintxos and wine.

Day
2
26.1 km

SAN SEBASTIAN -> GETARIA

Leaving San Sebastian and the unspoiled Bay of Biscay, this route curves along the coastline through grassy fields and rolling hills. First, you'll see the Church of San Martin de Tours, a lovingly restored national monument, before passing through some traditional whaling towns. Later, you arrive in the picturesque village of Getaria, perched on a rocky headland above a cute harbour.

Day
3
18 km

GETARIA -> DEBA

For Day 3 you'll set out on a small country road hugging the coast, eventually arriving in Zarautz. From there, take the small footpath into farmlands until you reach the Church of Santa Maria la Real and birthplace of explorer Juan Sebastian Elcano, the first man to circumnavigate the Earth in the 16th Century. Once you've stopped to admire the town, continue along the coast to the last stop for the day - the stunning beach town, Deba.

Day
4
24.3 km

DEBA -> MARKINA-XEMEIN

Today, we leave the sea behind for more mountainous landscapes and won't see the coast again until Bilbao. The route crosses a river and starts climbing into dense scrub, until it reaches the Hermitage of El Calvario. From here, keep to the narrow footpath (GR-121), which passes through many secluded hamlets. Finally, the trail descends steeply into your destination, Markina. This is a village with a strong sense of history and Basque traditions.

Day
5
25.7 km

MARKINA-XEMEIN -> GERNIKA

Leaving Markina, the route follows an ancient cobbled road and crosses the river in Bolivar. It ascends to the 15th Century Monastery of Cenarruza, which contains a Gothic Renaissance church and mediaeval cloister. Leaving the monastic site, the path moves into dense woodland, up to Gontzegarai, and down again to Gerikaitz. At the Hermitage of Santiago, a steep footpath leads downhill to a creek and finally into the town of Gernika.

Day
6

19.9 km

GERNIKA -> LEZAMA

Setting out this morning you'll leave Gernika by the hermitage of Santa Luzia Zallo. Shortly after, we'll reach the road (PR-173) that will take us to Morga. Here, we leave the farmland and enter a forest, following a steep descent to the traditional villages of Goikoetxea, Larrabetzu, and finally, Lezama.

Day
7

14 km

LEZAMA -> BILBAO

This is a relatively short stage through pastoral farmland. First, we pass Zamudio and the Roman Church of San Maarten, where the Tower of Malpica is visible above. Slowly climbing to reach the summit of Mount Avril, we're rewarded with spectacular views of Bilbao and the valley below. From Guriezo the Camino continues to Liendo where there are two route choices to Laredo; either crossing the valley and passing the Church of Nuestra Senora de Liendo in Hazas, or following paths up to the Chapel of St Julian. beautiful beaches, mediaeval quarter (Puebla Vieja), and lively seaside atmosphere.

Day

Day

13
